

Senior Social Worker (level 4) DART

Salary: £42,839.00 - £46,142.00

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a Senior Social Worker to be part of the Flintshire Discharge Assessment and Recovery Team.

Flintshire County Council has created the Discharge Assessment and Recovery Team to provide support to the citizens of Flintshire through D2RA pathways, including discharge from local acute and community hospitals, step down beds and a specialist D2RA unit providing gold standard multi-disciplinary support.

The successful candidate will work holistically with citizens co-producing strength-based, outcome focused interventions, encompassing the key principles of the SSWBA 2014. The work is fast paced and rewarding, providing opportunities for creative and innovative practice via multi-disciplinary working. The team work in partnership with health colleagues improving outcomes for citizens.

As a Senior Social Worker the candidate will provide mentoring and support to other team members and work with a range of cases including complex cases. The role is ideal for those wishing to take the next steps in their career.

The ability to speak Welsh is desirable for this post.
