

Support Worker - Substance Misuse Salary - £26,409 - £27,111 / Grade G03

Job Summary

The post offers a good opportunity to gain experience and knowledge in supporting adults who access the substance misuse treatment service. You will be part of the social care service working within the principles of recovery and homeless prevention. You will work alongside a supportive multi-agency team and be confident working independently in the community.

You should be a good communicator, non-judgemental and flexible. You will be encouraged to embrace a broad range of training to grow your skills and confidence. It is important that you have access to transport in order to undertake the roles and responsibilities of the job.

As this post will result in you having substantial contact with children, and/or vulnerable adults the successful applicant will be subject to a Full Disclosure and Barring Services check.
