Theatr Clwyd, Mold

Permanent

A range of Part Time posts available

Salary £24,000 pro-rata

Theatr Clwyd has been Wales's foremost producing theatre since 1976 and the Executive Team, Artistic Director Tamara Harvey and Executive Director Liam Evans-Ford, are leading the theatre through an exciting period of change, building on the excellence and pride of the past to generate a dynamic, creative centre for the arts for the future.

The Music Department at Theatr Clwyd is the hub for delivering music within the community. The focus is around all young people having access to music and being able to learn an instrument. The department will build upon the strength of the Flintshire Music Service, integrating and building on the renowned excellence of its historical work. The vision for the department aims to deliver a programme of work that harnesses the transformational power of music, to provide creative learning and community engagement. We aim to offer the highest possible standard of music tutoring within educational settings and less formal structures. These musical experiences and tuition will be available to all members of the local community for their enjoyment. Promoting good health and well-being, whilst upholding and delivering the mission and vision of Theatr Clwyd.

We are currently recruiting for several positions across the following instrumental areas :

Violin/Viola, Woodwind, Percussion, Harp, Guitar, Voice & Piano

We are looking for candidates who have a qualification to at least Grade 8 on their principal musical instrument/voice with a recognised examination board, or equivalent diploma or similar qualification. Proven excellence and the ability to communicate your thorough understanding of the technical elements of your specialist instrument is essential.

Due to the requirement to move between schools and within the community, a full current driving licence and appropriate transport is also essential. The successful applicants will be subject to a Disclosure and Barring Services check.

The contracted hours available vary for each discipline, please detail in your supporting statement of your application form which discipline you are applying for together with the minimum and maximum number of hours we could consider you for should your application be successful.
