

Social Services for Adults
Social Worker Enhanced Care Team

Permanent 18.5 hrs

Grade 06 (SCP28 to 31)£32,234 to £34,728 pro rata

Based at Preswylfa, Hendy Road, Mold, Flintshire

An opportunity has arisen for an experienced Social Worker to join a well-established and respected Multidisciplinary team support people to remain independent within their own home.

The post-holder will work as part of an integrated team working with health colleagues, nurses, physios etc. The post-holder will perform a key role taking a complex caseload ensuring the full involvement of Citizens and their carers in the assessment and care planning process. The work is fast paced and interesting with the emphasis on supporting people to remain in their own homes and avoiding hospital admission.

Locality working means we are well placed to build upon positive relationships with health and voluntary sector colleagues and within local communities. The Community Resource team will have access to various supporting services such as an in-house Reablement team, Intermediate Care and therapeutic intervention for individuals.

Flintshire has a good track record for supporting their employee's well-being and career development via regular supportive one to one supervision and the opportunity for peer support and training.

This is a positive opportunity for individuals that consider they meet the above requirements and are committed to developing multi agency working to empowering older people across Flintshire to have their voices heard and maintain their independence.
