

Environmental Health Officer (Health, Safety & Public Health) Part time – 3 days

Cyflog / Salary: £36,371- £39,571 pro rata

2022 national pay award pending

We've a great part time opening for someone with enthusiasm, a flexible approach and a solution focused outlook to join our friendly and supportive team.

Using your Degree or Masters in Environmental Health, you'll ideally bring your experience as a registered Environmental Health Officer working in the health and safety field. However if you're recently qualified or an Environmental Health graduate with relevant experience, then we'd also like to hear from you.

There'll be plenty of opportunities to use your proven communication skills, at all levels whilst undertaking varied work such as health and safety regulation in local authority enforced premises; event safety; accident investigation; legal proceedings; alongside diverse public health duties such as caravan park registration, skin piercing registrations and private water supplies.

Successful candidates will be entitled to generous amounts of holidays, pension, discount's at hundreds of retailers across the UK, family friendly and work-life balance policies, development opportunities and much more.
